Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	Very positive feedback, Quality of Care Report reflects this as d oes Foster Parents Annual Reviews (Internal and panel). Very positive feedback from the Annual Satisfaction Survey (distribut ed by the AFC Central Office)  Children/YP's voices are heard in a number of ways:  • The children are spoken to during visits by the team,  • Children/YP take part is developing their Outcome Monitoring forms  • Children/YP provide feedback both verbally, orally, and using non-communication methods.  • Children/YP are supported to attend meetings about them an d have independent advocates where appropriate
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	Very positive feedback from various professionals including LA SW. The Quality of Care report reflects this as does Foster Par ents Annual Reviews (Internal and panel). Children/YP's voices are heard in a number of ways:  • The children are spoken to during visits by the team, • Children/YP take part is developing their Outcome Monitoring forms • Children/YP provide feedback both verbally, orally, and using non-communication methods. • Children/YP are supported to attend meetings about them an d have independent advocates where appropriate
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	Very positive feedback from various professionals including LA SW, education and birth families. The Quality of Care report ref lects this as does Foster Parents Annual Reviews (Internal and panel).  Panel meetings are held to adhere to regulatory standards and expectations. Ensuring safe recruitment and systems.

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

Young people are given as much choice as possible in making i ndependent choices and stating their views using picture, symb ols and by body language. There is an advocate who visits the project monthly.

Young people's requests for specific food and activities are act ed on and these are gathered during a house meeting. Menus are planned weekly with our long term residential young people and they plan which days they are cooking and which days they are tidying up.

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

A healthy lifestyle is promoted and access to health advice and support is available via our health links both in community and t hrough schools. Staff are familiar with all the specialist needs of our young people and have received appropriate training for a ny specialised procedures. We have support through Changing Minds to ensure that we support our Young people's emotional and mental health well-being needs appropriately.

Young people have personal plans in place which is individual t o each specific young person. Information is gathered about all aspects of their life. This is reviewed regularly. Plans are follow ed to ensure a consistent approach and that boundaries are in place.

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

Action for Children have robust safeguarding policies and proc edure that the service follows fully. Safeguarding file audits are in place with a minimum of 8 per manager per year for quality a ssurance purposes. Notifications are made to CIW and Social C are Wales as appropriate in order to comply with regulations an d keep the YP safe. The safety of the young people is always a priority. Staff are familiar with Safeguarding procedures and att end safeguarding training. Enhanced recruitment checks are c ompleted, and relevant behavioural and risk assessment docu mentation is updated when required.

The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.

Arosfa is a welcoming warm homely environment that has enou gh space, resources and equipment to enable the YP to feel in dependent but cared for in a homely space.

The building is well equipped to meet the needs of all young pe ople . Young people are involved in planning of décor within bui lding as well as being able to choose what activity equipment th ey would like.

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published  $\underline{\text{guidance}}$  on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	Ash Square we ensure the children's voices are heard by holding regular children's meetings in a variety of forms applicable to their needs i.e. visual and pec forms, outcomes are set with the young person including their likes and dislikes and what the y what to achieve. During our children meetings there are choices in menus, activities and their daily routine. Review meetings are held regularly, always reviewing with the young person being involved in setting outcomes individual to them to achieve and progress, this is documented in their daily notes, planner and personal plan.
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	At Ash Square we use personal plans to target and manage he alth development and overall well-being. Production of risk ass essments to assess risk mitigating and keeping the child safe. We also have behaviour plan in place, these are reviewed regularly or if an behaviour incident occurs. Each day children have a plethora of opportunities to play, engaging activities of their choice and time lines to follow for both children and staff resulting in a structure of the day supporting behavioural development and well-being

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	At Ash Square each child has a personal plan and risk assess ments in place, identifying key risk and triggers in order of safe management of their care. Action for Children have robust safe guarding policies in place, along with mandatory training as per training matrix ensuring this is adhered too by all staff. Procedu res in place regarding safeguarding concerns and referral proc ess which ensure all concerns are taken and action appropriate ly. Our information for young people is available in various form s i.e Pec friendly handbook. Included in the handbook is an exp lanation how they can complain if they are not happy.
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	At Ash Square outcomes are set at RAP panel, then a provider assessment is completed to ensure we can support their well-b eing and outcomes are individual to meet the needs and develo pment of the young person. These are reviewed and implement ed every time the young person stays at Ash Square in conjunc tion with the young person. In supervisions, team meetings, the young person review is shared evidencing how the young person is developing within the outcome arrow (distance travel tool). We also additional monitoring of outcomes in place via our quar terly reporting to the local authority providing outcome progress ion.

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

Care staff advocate for our young people ensuring their voices are heard through children's meeting that take place at the ho mes monthly, one to one session with their keyworker and annual education and CLA reviews.

Personal plans are created which include information about the young person's care and support needs and how this will be pr ovided. Each personal plan is outcome focused and opportuniti es are made available to our young people developing their ind ependence.

All young people have a child friendly plan (My Plan) which is w ritten in their voice and details the most important things to the m

Young people are encouraged to have their voice heard and c are staff ask important questions about their care and support needs and their relationships.

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

Young people are supported to reach their educational potential and attend school regularly. The staff team encourage young people to have healthy habits and sleep routines and provide consistent and nurturing support daily.

Risk assessments are in place for each young person to ensur e care staff are aware of the assessed risks for children and th eir peers. Risk assessments are reviewed regularly and detail p otential risks and appropriate mitigating strategies.

Young people are offered age-appropriate activities within the home or out in the community ensuring their physical and emoti onal well-being is promoted.

Our care staff promote positive behaviour management throug h our therapeutic model of care DDP (Dyadic Developmental P sychotherapy) and our behaviour model of practice, Therapeuti c Crisis Intervention (TCI).

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

Young people are supported by care staff who understand their safeguarding responsibilities and are confident in following safe guarding processes and procedures set out in the Safeguardin g Policy. All staff have completed safeguarding training and refr esher training is provided 3 times a year to ensure staff knowle dge is refreshed with current legislation.

Young people are safe, supported and well cared for in the home and care staff have created positive relationships with them. All safeguarding concerns are responded to appropriately and in a timely manner.

Our young people have access to an independent advocate who visits their homes termly.

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

Care staff advocate for our young people ensuring their voices are heard through children's meeting that take place at the ho mes monthly, one to one session with their keyworker and annual education and CLA reviews.

Personal plans are created which include information about the young person's care and support needs and how this will be provided. Each personal plan is outcome focused and opportunities are made available to our young people developing their independence.

All young people have a child friendly plan (My Plan) which is w ritten in their voice and details the most important things to the m.

Young people are encouraged to have their voice heard and c are staff ask important questions about their care and support needs and their relationships.

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

Young people are supported to reach their educational potential and attend school regularly. The staff team encourage young people to have healthy habits and sleep routines and provide consistent and nurturing support daily.

Risk assessments are in place for each young person to ensur e care staff are aware of the assessed risks for children and th eir peers. Risk assessments are reviewed regularly and detail p otential risks and appropriate mitigating strategies.

Young people are offered age-appropriate activities within the home or out in the community ensuring their physical and emotional well-being is promoted.

Our care staff promote positive behaviour management throug h our therapeutic model of care DDP (Dyadic Developmental P sychotherapy) and our behaviour model of practice, Therapeuti c Crisis Intervention (TCI).

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

Young people are supported by care staff who understand their safeguarding responsibilities and are confident in following safe guarding processes and procedures set out in the Safeguardin g Policy. All staff have completed safeguarding training and refr esher training is provided 3 times a year to ensure staff knowle dge is refreshed with current legislation.

Young people are safe, supported and well cared for in the home and care staff have created positive relationships with them. All safeguarding concerns are responded to appropriately and in a timely manner.

Our young people have access to an independent advocate who visits their homes termly.

The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.

Young people are supported by care staff who understand their safeguarding responsibilities and are confident in following safe guarding processes and procedures set out in the Safeguarding Policy. All staff have completed safeguarding training and refr esher training is provided 3 times a year to ensure staff knowle dge is refreshed with current legislation.

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

At Park House we encourage young people to be involved in the preparing of their personal plans. Their likes / dislikes and preferences are acknowledged and evidenced through daily recordings and outcomes. Young people are able to choose their a ctivities, meals and snacks through verbal, PEC and Makaton communications. This is done during every stay for each individual young person, the young people are able to choose their favourite things and be involved in their planning for future stays. To promote the young people's voice we ensure that the person centred reviews (held 6 monthly) with parents, carers and the placing authority are conducted and lead with the childs voice at the centre of discussions. The link worker reports on topics which promote choice and partnership such as:

- Things that are important to me (the young person)
- What we admire about you (staff feedback relating to the young person)
- What is working well for me
- · What is not working well for me
- What I have been up to (including details and evidence of activities, trips etc during young person's stays)
- My priorities for the coming year

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

Staff encourage and support young people to work towards their personal goals and record their progress on their individual o utcome arrows. Staff take into account compatibility when alloca ting young people's overnight stay, young people are able to express through their different forms of communication, who they would like to spend their time with. Staff encourage social interactions and developments through play / meal time activities.

We try to be SMART when we set outcomes for the children and ensure that the outcome is something the child can attain and not an unrealistic outcome.

However, we recognise that young people's development chan ges and sometimes this means we have to take steps backward s and re look at the bigger picture for the young person's overall wellbeing.

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

Young people are aware of who they can talk to if they have an y concerns or worries. Staff are trained in Safeguarding and ar e vigilant when working with young people. All staff are DBS checked and staff are aware of whistle blowing policy and manage rs have an open door policy if staff need to report any concern s.

Action for Children have robust safeguarding policy and proced ures that are followed within Park House. All staff complete man datory safeguarding training, Safeguarding is a standard agen da at team meetings, supervisions and appraisals. Safeguarding glevels are noted for each young person in their digital file and a multi-agency approach is taken for all safeguarding concerns

The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.

We continually strive to update Park House to maintain a warm and welcoming environment. Creating sensory areas that meet all children needs The following section requires you to answer questions about the staff and volunteers working at the service.

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published  $\underline{\text{guidance}}$  on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

Support workers continue to complete activity sheets at the end of support sessions with the children and young people, these have been reviewed by Service Practitioners to capture Child a nd Young person's voice and opinion, where necessary using s ymbols, facial expressions body language. Families sign and ad d any comments following the end of the session. A whole servi ce review has recently been completed due to a change in man agement, the purpose is to capture feedback from families, staf f and young people, feedback questionnaires have been gathe red and recorded from children, young people, families, staff, to evaluate the home sitting service Child centred reviews have b een attended by service practitioners, the children and young p eople are actively encouraged to use their voices, and are liste ned to, any requests considered and met wherever possible. T he voice and choice of our children and young people are enco uraged when planning support sessions. These discussions ar e documented on the children's/young person's digital case file and activity sheets. We continue to strive to ensure that the yo ung people are at the centre of the service that we provide; staf f actively talk to the young people while carrying out support an d follow their plan of care to ensure that we are working with the m in the way that suits the young person, and we try to be flexib le and adaptable in how we deliver the service. The Care and s upport plans reflect the choice and opportunities for young peo ple. The home-sitting domiciliary care service promotes an ope n, honest, and transparent culture through increased communi cation with staff and service users. Young people, their families/ carers and professionals are encouraged to have open discuss ions with the staff who actively listen and evaluate service to ref lect on young people's changing needs to reflect person centre d practice and voice and choice.

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

and behavioural development.

All staff are encouraged to support and focus outcomes regarding health and wellbeing during support visits. Personal Plans are developed with the families and young people to ensure that all their views, beliefs and needs are documented. It is evident through support, feedback, and review that all the children are continuing to progress well against their outcomes.

During care and support reviews health and well-being is discu ssed, and any issues are recorded within individual care and su pport plans, these are then shared with supporting staff and th e Integrated disability team with consent.

Through wellbeing calls staff have become more communicative creating an open and honest culture whilst feeling heard and valued. Service Practitioners have discussed any additional pressures families may be facing, particularly during the current cost of living crisis and have accessed Action for Children's crisis funding where needed to support families through critical or difficult times.

All documentation is available in Welsh however we need to en sure that all documentation is provided both in English and Wel sh consistently. A Service coordinator and Registered Manager both attend Welsh focus group within Action for Children to sup port and develop good practise and share with the staff and tea m.

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

All policies and procedures are up to date and shared with staff within team meetings. These policies in include robust Safeguar ding policies and procedures. Staff are encouraged to access p olicies and procedures through Action for Children's intranet. St aff are also provided with copies of documents as required. Re spect and independence is encouraged and championed to en able CYP to feel safe in the care of our staff. BBS and safe recr uitment policies are procedures are followed and implemented t o ensure safe services are provided for our CYP and their famil ies.

A SharePoint file for staff is being created to enable easy acces s for staff to view policies and procedures and any essential inf ormation this may require to include rotas, activities for young p eople, staff handbook.

Staff have been actively encouraged and supported to have co vid boosters, and annual flu vaccinations. Staff are advised to s tay at home if feeling unwell and encouraged to take a Lateral flow test if showing any covid symptoms

All children/young people and their families feel safe with Action for Children staff when asked at review.

We have had no whistle blowing incidents or complaints and continue to promote an open door policy and duty of candour. The service positively affirms the diversity of service users' lifestyles in relation to race, gender, culture, language, disability, religion, health, sexuality, differing patterns of family life or dependency needs.

Children will be provided with positive images and role models, which will mirror and reinforce their own lifestyles thereby assisting the development of coping mechanisms to resist discrimination.

The service can provide all documents in Welsh.

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

young people are supported to have control over their day-to-day life choices and are listened to. They also have commissioning services, family and an independent advocacy service to as sist them in the decision-making process. Young people meet regularly with care staff as a group to discuss menu planning and activities, and individually to discuss their progress or any issues. The home is working towards providing a Welsh speaking service and currently has two permanent member of care staff that speaks Welsh fluently. The manager and care staff support young people to promote and maintain their cultural identity.

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

The home supports young people to be physically and emotion ally healthy by encouraging a healthy lifestyle, and ensuring th ey have prompt access to health services. A balanced diet is e ncouraged and young people's behavioural support, physical, emotional, and mental health well-being needs are monitored. Young people benefit from receiving well planned, individualise d care that meets their needs effectively. Care staff address the issues experienced by young people, by helping them to work through their problems and any anxieties. The management tea m and care staff stand by young people, and do not give up on them easily. This has resulted in young people having long and very settled placements. Young people move from the home in a planned way, and continue to maintain contact with the mana ger and care staff.

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

The safety of young people is prioritised. Care staff have acces s to the services' child protection policies and procedures and attend safeguarding training. Enhanced recruitment checks are completed, and relevant behavioural and risk assessment docu mentation is updated when required. The manager monitors ca re staff practices to ensure young people receive the best care possible.

The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.

Young people live in a home that meets their needs, supports t hem to maximise their independence and achieve a sense of w ell-being. The home is located in a rural setting but not far from a town where young people can access shops and other ameni ties. They can visit larger towns and cities via public transport li nks or the home's own transport arrangements. The home prov ides accommodation for up to five young people who have their own bedrooms with en-suite shower rooms. Young people's be drooms are decorated to their personal taste, have suitable fur niture, and contain items of importance to them. The communal areas are spacious and attractively decorated and furnished, p roviding young people with an uplifting environment. The mana ger is passionate about improving the experiences of young pe ople, and actively pursues funding from different organisations to enhance the environment. A positive feature of the home is t he outdoor space. The home is set in large grounds which prov ide plenty of areas for play and learning. The manager promote s the service provider's 'Budding Minds' programme, which prov ides opportunities for young people to grow their own fruit and vegetables. The home has an orchard and poly tunnels, and yo ung people use the food they grow in their menus, baking and t o make jams and other preserves. Health and safety checks of the premises are completed. The home was secure upon our ar rival, our identity was checked, and we were requested to sign t he visitor book in accordance with fire safety arrangements. Th e staff team reports on areas requiring improvement to the serv ice provider's maintenance team. Work is completed in a timely manner and the service provider is supportive of financial inves tment within the home. Processes are in place to ensure confid ential and sensitive information is stored securely.

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published  $\underline{\text{guidance}}$  on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	Whenever possible, the young people are supported to have c ontrol over their day to day life choices and are listened to. The y also have commissioning services, family and an independent advocacy service to assist them in the decision making process . Young people meet regularly with care staff as a group to disc uss menu planning, activities, and individually to discuss their p rogress or any issues. The home supports young people to be physically and emotionally healthy by encouraging a healthy life style, and ensuring they have prompt access to health services . A balanced diet is encouraged and young peoples behavioura I support, physical, emotional, and mental health well-being nee ds are monitored.
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	Young people benefit from receiving well-planned, individualise d care that meets their needs effectively. Young people contrib ute to their personal plans, which provide information about their care and support needs, routines, and preferences. Care staff review with young people regularly, to make sure they are accurate and suitable. The plans include what matters to them and their wishes and goals. Care staff follow young people's individual personal plans consistently, so young people understand and respect boundaries.

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	Care staff address the issues experienced by young people, by helping them to work through their problems and any anxieties. The care staff and management stand by the young people, an d do not give up on them easily. This has resulted in young people having long and very settled placements. The manager and care staff are ambitious for the young people, and young people are more confident and assertive as a result. The home fosters a positive culture of high aspiration that leads to changes and improvements in the young people's lives.
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	The safety of the young people is prioritised, Care staff have a ccess to the services' child protection policies and procedures and attend safeguarding training. Enhanced recruitment check s are completed, and relevant behavioural and risk assessment documentation is updated when required.

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

At Ty Laura all children take part in their individual children's m eetings as well as group children's meetings children's meeting s, they also have key worker sessions throughout their stays st ays. PCR's (Person Centred Reviews) are completed every 6 m onths where the young person will engage with their likes and d islikes as to what is working for them and what is not. Children a re supported to participate in the meeting using communication methods they are comfortable in using if non-verbal and have d iscussed, what trips and activities they like after school, food an d drink preferences as well as staff they like to have work with them. The social media page has now activated and this will become a tool in enabling the sharing of news regarding the servic e with followers of the page. Reach currently stands at 61 follow er.

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

The young people are given opportunities to engage in activitie s within the project and also in the community that is of interest to them. The young people complete arts and crafts, baking an d cooking, puzzles and games independently and with their pee rs. In January, 3 young people were also able to attend another service users 18th birthday party in the local area after discussi ons were held with all parents allowing continuation of friendshi ps. Many of the young people are non-verbal or struggle with c ommunicating effectively. To support communication, communic ation books have been created and are used on a daily basis t o aid the young people to communicate wants and needs and t herefore relieve potential frustrations and behaviours around b eing misunderstood. To build on this the staff are developing s pecific pages that can be incorporated into these books that ho ld key PECS specific to the individuals likes and communication needs. Staff have also access Makaton Level 1 training to supp lement the use of PECS to give opportunities for our young peo ple to have their thoughts voiced.

We have updated our young persons guides and now includes PECS, videos through QR codes and pictures of the project. Th is is now immersive and accessible for the young people and al so gives the young people and introduction to their Link Worker through a video link. This will prepare the young people for their first visits more and we do encourage a visit with family first be fore the initial tea visits.

At Ty Laura outcomes for each individual young person are sp ecific to them and are set at the start of the journey via an outc omes ladder distance travel tool. Young people are given if app ropriate opportunities to access the community, engage in activities of their choice. Staff receive core mandatory training-man ual handling, team teach, administration of medication, first aid, health-respiratory, PEG feeds, suctioning, anaphylaxis.

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

Action for Children have robust safeguarding procedures which are followed via the policy, staff complete mandatory training an d safeguarding is a set agenda item in team meetings, supervis ions and APR's. notifications are made to CIW as per guidance. Ty Laura is warm and welcoming and we strive to be a safe sec ure place for the young people to feel safe.

The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.

Along with the bedrooms that were completed in the previous si x months the same artists, Fresh Creative have returned to co mplete the Mural outside as you enter the building. This has br ought a fresh, colourful and warm stimulus as you enter the building.

Parents have commented positively to the new wall with one par ent saying that it ' is bright and vibrant, exactly what Ty Laura is 'With more secure and wider reaching internet being installed a nd further routers installed the internet is now more accessible in the young people's bedrooms. This has allowed for Firesticks to be used, with pin controls and age limits controlled for staff monitoring, to allow young people to watch films within the comfort of their room. This has also reduced some behaviours around the lounge TV as young people now have the option to utilise the TVs in their bedroom effectively if other young people are watching programmes in the lounge.

We have extensive space in the garden for the young people to explore and provides opportunities for them to self-regulate as well enjoy the outdoors in secure area with staff supervision. The project also looks to promote the Welsh language and cult ure through their displays

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

At Ty Robin all children take part in their individual children's m eetings as well as group children's meetings children's meeting s, they also have key worker sessions throughout their stays st ays. PCR's (Person Centred Reviews) are completed every 6 m onths where the young person will engage with their likes and d islikes as to what is working for them and what is not. Children a re supported to participate in the meeting using communication methods they are comfortable in using if non-verbal and have d iscussed, what trips and activities they like after school, food an d drink preferences as well as staff they like to have work with them. We have open days and events where CYP and their families have the opportunity to engage and have their voices hear

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

The young people are given opportunities to engage in activitie s within the project and also in the community that is of interest to them. The young people complete arts and crafts, baking an d cooking, puzzles and games independently and with their pee rs. We have celebrated YP's birthday's with the CYP having the opportunity to go along to the birthday parties. Many of the you ng people are non-verbal or struggle with communicating effecti vely. To support communication, communication PECs books h ave been created and are used on a daily basis to aid the youn g people to communicate wants and needs and therefore reliev e potential frustrations and behaviours around being misunders tood.

At Ty Robin outcomes for each individual young person are specific to them and are set at the start of the journey via an outcomes ladder distance travel tool. Young people are given if appropriate opportunities to access the community, engage in activities of their choice. Staff receive core mandatory training-manual handling, team teach, administration of medication, first aid, health-respiratory, PEG feeds, suctioning, anaphylaxis.

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

Action for Children have robust safeguarding procedures which are followed via the policy, staff complete mandatory training an d safeguarding is a set agenda item in team meetings, supervis ions and APR's. Ty Robin is warm and welcoming and we strive to be a safe secure place for the young people to feel safe. Par ental feedback states that the feel happy when their CYP atten d Ty Robin as they know they are well looked after and safe. M ARFS completed as needed; Annual safeguarding training and scenarios in TM discuss safeguarding in TM and on supervisio

The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.

Ty Robin has extensive space in the garden for the young peo ple to explore and provides opportunities for them to self-regula te as well enjoy the outdoors in secure area with staff supervisi on. The project also looks to promote the Welsh language and culture through their displays at Ty Robin, the home is also ada pted to the needs of the young people; maintained and planne d upgrades explored. All disability resources for specific needs are available and maintained.

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

Personal plans are reviewed and updated to reflect any change s to the Dom care packages, this would be as a result of any changes within the home or the YP. Feedback is gathered from the YP and their family for their individual reviews; personal plans are specific for YPs needs and YP have the opportunity to feed into these with their likes, dislikes, thoughts and feelings.

We ensure that the Dom Care personal plan mirrors the mornin g routine at home as timing is key due to the YPs needs and daily routines, we are pleased that the effect has been positive for the families.

The YP enjoy seeing the staff they are familiar with in the mornings as part of their routine. This gives opportunity for continuity and engagement on a meaningful leave so YP can share their views openly.

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

personal pans are robust and show the YPs needs, these are r eviewed regularly, Staff follow the Action for Children medicatio n policy which is stringently adhered to and any breaches of thi s policy investigated, and appropriate action taken. Staff memb ers are managed in accordance with Action for Children policy and procedures. Regular reviews of documentation around me dication and a robust medication procedure.

To meet the health needs of the young people staff are trained by internal trainers regarding medication. We have close links with the local health board who support us by delivering child s pecific training in areas such as Epilepsy, administration of Buc calam, Gastrostomy feeding and suctioning.

Epilepsy training and Gastrostomy feeding are renewed annuall y.

We have being able to access training face to face to refresh o ur knowledge with gastrostomy training.

Accidents and Incidents are recorded and placed on the child's individual file and discussed in team meetings to allow lessons I earnt to be shared and risk assessments amended as relevant.

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

The staff who work within the service acknowledge that disable d children are particularly vulnerable to abuse in all its forms. St aff are trained to be vigilant and sensitive to children's communication needs. Staff are committed to working with and acting in a child's best interest, in partnership with parents and other ag encies. The service, however, has a responsibility to act upon a ny concerns relating to the child or young person's wellbeing w hich could result in other principles such as open access and partnership with parents. New staff receive an induction into Action for Children and the Service's Safeguarding Procedures. All staff also receives mandatory Safeguarding training from Action for Children that is regularly updated and reviewed.

The service positively affirms the diversity of service users' lifes tyles in relation to race, gender, culture, language, disability, rel igion, health, sexuality, differing patterns of family life or depen dency needs. Children will be provided with positive images and role models, which will mirror and reinforce their own lifestyles t hereby assisting the development of coping mechanisms to resi st discrimination. The service can provide all documents in Wel sh on request

Safeguarding is part of team meeting and supervision- annual t raining and scenarios discussed regularly.
