Training and Workforce Planning

Describe the arrangements in place during the last financial year for identifying, planning and meeting the training needs of staff employed by the service provider

In line with our induction policy staff receive all mandatory training . In the last year we have reviewed the effectiveness of CWC's training. The previous method was for staff to watch DVD's, this method was not as engaging as needed so we procured E Learning for mandatory and supplementary training. We have also introduce d a free lance trainer for face to face training. The trainer has an excellent reputation for delivering high quality courses.

Describe the arrangements in place during the last financial year for the recruitment and retention of staff employed by the service provider

We undertook a review of our staffing process. We introduced ind eed and provided dedicated recruitment time outside of the norm al office hours to engage with potential candidates. We have simp lified the application process and implemented employee satisfaction programmes to retain staff.

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published $\underline{\text{guidance}}$ on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	All residents are involved in creating and updating their person al plans. Residents plan their week by undertaking weekly plan ning sessions. Activites in and around the home are offered with several choices to ensure residents chose they activity they wish to engage in.
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	Our recent CIW inspection noted - 'People lead happy lives at Caernewydd Farm. The staff team ensure people are invited to be fully involved in discussions about their care. Each person is encouraged to make daily choices in what they do.'
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	All residents show they feel safe by informing staff of their satisf action to remain supported at Caernewydd Farm. Staff actively advocate and inform residents about their rights and also how t o raise concerns. Operationally we have a number of procedur es to ensure necessary safeguards are in place when recruitin g staff.
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	Residents at Caernewydd enjoy the environment they live in. T he outdoor space and working farm provide theraputic opportu nities which are always fully utilised. Residents are keen to sho w staff and visitors their bedroom or personal space, taking prid e in their space.

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	All residents are involved in creating and updating their person al plans. Residents plan their week by undertaking weekly plan ning sessions. Activites in and around the home are offered with several choices to ensure residents chose they activity they wish to engage in.
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	The residents regularly complete service user quality of well bei ng measure tool, to be able to give feedback on areas where th ey can, this would be around the environment, social opportunit ies, staff interaction and support needs.

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	All residents show they feel safe by informing staff of their satisf action to remain supported at Nant Leiros. Staff actively advoca te and inform residents about their rights and also how to raise concerns. Operationally we have a number of procedures to en sure necessary safeguards are in place when recruiting staff.
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	Residents at Nant Leiros enjoy the environment they live in. The outdoor space provides therapeutic opportunities which are a lways fully utilized. Residents are keen to show staff and visitors their bedroom or personal space, taking pride in their space.

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published $\underline{\text{guidance}}$ on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	All residents are involved in creating and updating their person al plans. Residents plan their week by undertaking weekly plan ning sessions. Activities in and around the home are offered with several choices to ensure residents chose they activity they wish to engage in.
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	The residents regularly complete service user quality of well being measure tool, to be able to give feedback on areas where they can, this would be around the environment, social opportunities, staff interaction and support needs.
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	All residents show they feel safe by informing staff of their satisf action to remain supported at Penscynnor. Staff actively advoc ate and inform residents about their rights and also how to rais e concerns. Operationally we have a number of procedures to ensure necessary safeguards are in place when recruiting staff.
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	Residents at Penscynnor enjoy the environment they live in. The outdoor space and working farm provide therapeutic opportunities which are always fully utilized. Residents are keen to show staff and visitors their bedroom or personal space, taking pride in their space.
