Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	Over the last year or so the home has been empty with no servi ce users placed, this has been mainly due to works being carrie d out in the home and the backlog of services such as electricia ns, plumber, builder and decorators after the coronavirus pand emic, works are still being undertaken. Once works have finished we will re-open to new service users and staff. We are hoping that all works are undertaken and finished by the end of June 2023
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	at present no service users are in place. Quality will always be a priority within the home and we in the p ast have taken pride in providing our service users with good q uality care which supports their health and well-being.
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	As stated No service users are in place in the home.
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	As stated No service users are in place in the home

Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.

As part of our remit in the home we run as a family concern, we support and encourage all service users, staff and visitors to be independent, forthcoming, and truthful with us, this means we can correctly ensure that all care and support needs are met a ppropriately.

We hold regular service user and staff meetings in which individ uals are prompted, encouraged and supported to take part in. All service users have a great role in ensuring their care and ris k management plans directly affect their needs, choices and de cisions, this includes their individual care plan reviews which mark any necessary changes that are required.

The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.

Staff work closely with all service users and are consistent within their daily lives, staff know and are well known to the service users.

We hold regular service user meeting and speak with individual s on a daily basis and are able to communicate on the same lev el as and with our service users.

Service users will tell us what they think on a daily basis this includes their views, opinions and suggestions, they tend to speak with us on a named basis and are very comfortable with and kn ow who to go to, to get the best results for what they need and want

A lot of our service users have complex mental health needs, s ubstance and alcohol abuse problems some have been street homeless, we provide a safe space for all of our residents ensuring that they have community contact, family contact and contact with outside professionals such as GP's, CPN's, Social Work ers, Support Workers etc.

All our service users agree to a plan of care, this is also agreed with their social workers and family where possible, we believe t hat our service users are autonomous and must be treated as i ndividuals we promote independence, confidence, positive reas surance, support and assistance albeit at times being honest, truthful and firm when required.

Transparency with our service users is paramount in delivering and ensuring all care needs are met in the safest possible way, and personal outcomes, aims and objectives are achieved.

The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.

Grangelodge has a compliment of staff who have been appropriately trained and are long standing and consistent within the service users lives.

All incidents are recorded and reported as required and staff in the home are capable of managing and controlling situations wi th the best outcomes sought for all.

we have good contact's with the police, local CMHt's and GP su rgeries ensuring that all care needs as appropriately met in a quick and safe manner,

We very rarely have complaints and have had no safeguarding referrals made against staff or the management.

The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.

Service users have a voice in Grangelodge, they are freely able to express themselves and they are confident in giving us their suggestions and opinions, I think they truly see it as a family home.

They have a great deal of support and reassurance from staff in the home and their care needs are managed in such a way as to ensure their lifestyle, well-being and personal outcomes are achieved when or where ever possible.

Our activity schedule matches what the service users like and we have a wide range of activities outside of the home such as day trips, cinema trips, pool/snooker hall trips, long drives for tea/coffee and ice cream, individual shopping trips, and running er rands

These activities help give individuals a sense of achievement a nd standing with other service users and staff in the home.

On the flip side of this we are able to promote, prompt and enc ourage those who chose not to take part or interact with others, this at times can be quite difficult and does not always go to pla n, but are able as well to let the individual(s) do as they wish an d chose.
